NEW RETIREMENT OF THE ALLIED ARMIES.

LAY BUTTE IN RUINS, THREAT OF THE MINERS.

"We Have the Dynamite to Do It," the Text of Their Defiance.

If Troops, State or Federal, Arrive They Will Find Nothing but Ashes and Debris, According to a Statement Issued by One of the Leaders—Reign of Terror Already Instituted.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BUTTE (Mont.) Aug. 31.—Miners, stores has been removed and firing pins taken from the rifles. Representatives of the Butte Mine Workers' Union, the organization that seeks to eliminate the Western Federation, called at the Tramway mine this morning, and warned the men on day shift there to observe the rules for mining recently laid down by the new union. These rules are drastic and differ in many particulars from the practice followed by the companies. The representatives said that any "boss" objected to the new order, particularly in respect to the rule on blasting, the miners were to take at once the matter to the union, which would dispose of it.

An explosion of dynamite occurred this afternoon near the Walkerville reservoir of the Butte Water Company. The explosion caused no damage. An investigation by the employees of the company led to the conclusion that the powder was set off by boys intent on making a noise and alarming the residents of the vicinity. Miners are planning a march tomorrow by a committee of five from the original mine of the Anaconda company to line up the miners there and notify them that they must join the insurgents' union, quit work or be deported. Upon learning that the mine approaches are guarded by men armed with rifles, a committee of five from the Mine Workers' Union, the insurgent organization, called upon Sheriff Driscoll and County Attorney J. J. McCaffery this afternoon and requested

SUMMARY.

THE SKY. Clear. Wind at 5 p.m. south; velocity, 10 miles. Thermometer, highest, 72 deg.; lowest, 59 deg. Forecast: Fair. For complete weather report see last page, Part I.

THE CITY. Col. Sherman Otis Houghton, a mighty figure in early California history, died as a simple rancher yesterday. He put Los Angeles on the main line of the Southern Pacific and originated the project for our deep-water harbor.

The strange war between Dr. Karl F. Ross and John Avery over the latter's divorced wife will reach a crisis in Police Court today when Dr. Ross is brought to trial on a statutory charge.

Refugees arrived from the war zone who saw multi-millions compelled to walk for days without food and a society leader forced to stand in the aisle of a train she had chartered.

Notice was received of a meeting at which the railroads will plan a rate-cutting conflict with the steamships, precipitated by the opening of the Panama Canal.

A bomb picked up on a Mexican battlefield exploded and blew the owner to bits. Birds in the same room were unharmed.

While two arch red agitators were spouting to a Federal commission in San Francisco they were written down as ball jumpers in the Police Court here.

With volume of building work here in excess of $20,000,000 for the year ahead, talk of "business depression" is more than refuted.

The reader who would do justice to himself will not depend wholly upon the foregoing summary, comprehensive though it is, but will take in the complete news reports, which necessarily cannot be minutely summarized, epitomized or classified.

CIVILIZATION'S CRIME, OR, HELPING THE CZAR.

BY BERNARD SHAW.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND DIRECT WIRE.]
LONDON, Aug. 31.—It is idle and somewhat exasperating to talk of "lifting the acts and thoughts of the British people to the plane of the noblest and purest patriotism," with such a business in hand as the present war.

The hard fact is that we have placed ourselves in such a position that we cannot, without the most cowardly treachery, refuse to throw ourselves with all our might into the war on the side of France. But we are all three—France, Germany and England—alike, committing a crime against civilization for the benefit of Russia, and to ask us or any other sane man to create an illusion of nobility and purity and patriotism around such a crime is to ask honest people to do the work of dupes and fools. We shall have to fight and die and pay and suffer with the grim knowledge that we are sacrificing ourselves in an insane cause and that only by putting up a particularly good fight can we bring ourselves out of it with credit.

GRAND ARMY VETERANS WELCOMED TO DETROIT.

City Is Brilliantly Illuminated by Night for the Fast-Thinning Ranks of the Men in Blue—Committee Meetings Held in Readiness for Today's Business Sessions—California Delegation Establishes Headquarters.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

DETROIT, Aug. 31.—Hundreds of veterans of the Union army arrived in Detroit Sunday and today to attend the forty-eighth national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic. Every train and boat brought its quota of Civil War veterans to the city during the day, although the business sessions of the encampment will not begin until tomorrow.

The entire downtown section of Detroit has been brilliantly illuminated to welcome the veterans, workmen having been employed for several days in stringing hundreds of thousands of electric bulbs in the downtown streets. Tonight the streets were as light as day.

Today was given over to committee meetings of the organization. The Executive Committee of the National Council of Administration met this afternoon to review reports which will be submitted to the G.A.R. business meeting on Friday. The Credentials Committee also met at headquarters to pass upon credentials of those who will have a voice in the election of officers and other business at the regular sessions. The adjutant-general of the various States reported at this time. Tomorrow the National Council will meet to pass upon reports from these two meetings.

NEXT COMMANDER. There is much interest shown in the politics of the G.A.R., as there are several candidates for the office of commander-in-chief to succeed Washington Gardner. Among the prominent candidates are C. W. Blodgett of Ohio and David J. Palmer of Iowa. Indiana, Kansas, New Jersey and Oklahoma also have candidates for the office.

Commander-in-Chief Gardner had a busy day. From early morning until late at night a stream of visitors was going and coming to and from his headquarters. The chief did not falter, however. Through the long day and night he greeted delegations

MUCH NEARER PARIS VIEW OF LONDON POST.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Aug. 31 (3 a.m.)—The Post editorially calls attention today to a statement by the French embassy as indicating that the allied forces have again been compelled to fall back before the German advance in the neighborhood of La Fere, which is more than twenty miles nearer Paris than the Cambrai-Laon line where the allies reorganized after the Germans crossed the French border. Fighting is also reported in the vicinity of Amiens. La Fere is only a little more than sixty miles from Paris as the crow flies. The Post says:

Refugees Report.

ADVANCE OF THE COSSACKS SEEN AT KOENIGSBERG.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

GENEVA (Switzerland) via Paris, Aug. 31, 8:30 p.m.—News received here from Berlin and Frankfurt, where refugees continue to arrive from East Prussia, is to the effect that the terror of the refugees is spreading to the towns along the railroad line and that a great exodus from them is expected shortly.

MEN OF AIR MENACING PARIS; EXODUS FROM CITY UNDER WAY.

Brilliant Victory Accredited to Gen. Pau Fails to Stem the Hegira to Place of Safety.

General Battle All Along the Line in France is Reported to Have Been Resumed, but the Details Are Carefully Withheld—England Repeats Her Plea for Recruits.
Inspection of the Defenses Begun.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PARIS, Aug. 31, 6:20 p.m.—A German biplane passed over Paris at 4:30 p.m. and dropped a projectile, which, however, did not explode.

LONDON, Aug. 31, 10:15 p.m.—An Antwerp dispatch to the Reuter's Telegram Company says:

"It is reported here that Gen. Pau has won a brilliant victory over 50,000 Germans near Perennes, in the department of Somme."

LONDON, August 31.—A long official statement is issued by the French War Office reviewing the operations in Belgium and along the French frontier. A new retirement by the allied forces is recorded, while at the same time the statement is optimistic with reference to the opposition which the French and British are offering to the German advance.

No definite details are forthcoming regarding the general battle which apparently is in progress all along the line.

The French War Minister has inspected the supplementary defenses around Paris which rapidly are being pushed forward in anticipation of a possible investment of the French capital.

An Antwerp dispatch credits Gen. Pau with a victory over 50,000 Germans near Perennes. Whether this is a new victory or one to which reference was made several days ago is not known.

Queen Elizabeth of Belgium and her children have arrived in England. According to official advices received at Washington France is considering the advisability of moving the seat of government to Bordeaux.

Great Britain has joined with France in objecting to the purchase by the United States of German liners in connection with the plan to build up an American merchant marine.

It is reported by steamship officers arriving at Honolulu that British warships off Hongkong are holding up all vessels including those under the American flag and removing Germans and Austrians bound for the scene of hostilities.

The moratorium, proclaimed in London at the outbreak of war, has been extended for another month.

A Japanese destroyer which ran ashore near Tsing-Tan, China, was shelled by a German gunboat. The crew of the destroyer, however, previously, had abandoned her.

Expert Opinion.

ADVANCE TO PARIS CONTINUES, NO DECISIVE VICTORY ACHIEVED.

By an Associate Editor of the "Army and Navy Journal."

This line from Mezieres to Villers is being attacked by four armies of Grand Duke Albrecht and Gen. von Hausen, Von Buelow and Von Kluck. Military authorities give 250,000 men as the limit of strength that can be controlled as one army. The German advance seems to have launched at the left half of the allies' line a force of more than 700,000 men. Their rapid pursuit of the retreating forces of the allies shows that the German invading armies are well controlled. While they have lost numbers to some extent, they have gained in morale. There is no reason to expect the allies to stop a further advance by the

PURCHASE OF GERMAN LINERS OPPOSED BY THREE NATIONS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Great Britain, France and Russia have advised the United States to formally object to the purchase by the government of German merchant steamers to relieve conditions growing out of the European war and to build up an American merchant marine.

While not conveyed in any diplomatic correspondence, their position, nevertheless, has been vigorously set forth to President Wilson and Secretary Bryan.

France took the initiative, Ambassador Jusserand carrying his objections to President Wilson in his recent interview at the White House.

George Bahrmetz, the Russian Ambassador, conferred with the British and French Ambassadors today and later saw Secretary Bryan. All diplomats held that there was no precedent in international law for the purchase by a neutral nation of any great quantity of ships from a belligerent.

BASIS OF OBJECTIONS.

The chief objection urged is that the transaction would establish a large gold credit in the hands of Germany. The diplomats point out that the German steamship companies are closely affiliated with the German government and that to buy their ships would be tantamount to furnishing Germany with a large loan. Should the American government, however, distribute its purchases of ships equally among the belligerent nations they do not believe there would be objection from any quarter. Considerable difficulty would arise, however, it is asserted, if for instance, the crew of a German vessel purchased by the United States were maintained on it as the English and French governments would not allow the nationals of any belligerent to land from neutral ships at their ports. Aside from the question of possible financial aid to Germany and complications over the crews of the vessels, the European diplomats who are opposed to the plan believe difficulties would arise as to the cargoes on American ships. Their effort in the present war has been to sweep German commerce from the seas and they look upon any means to supply food to Germany or Austria as an unneutral act. Administration officials here have declared that the new ships would carry no articles which were specifically defined as contraband of war, but it is the belief of the diplomats that their governments would object even to conditional contraband, thus restricting considerably any commerce with belligerents. The European diplomats have endeavored to point out that they desire in no way to interfere with the upbuilding of the American merchant marine and wish it success in neutral countries, but they think the American government's ships could not be available for commerce with the belligerent countries of Europe.

BEGIN CONCLAVE TO ELECT POPE.

College of Cardinals Is Now Cut Off from World.

Doors Are Locked and Telephone Wires Severed.

St. Peter's Chapel Chimney Is Signal-Giver Today.

(BY ATLANTIC COAST AND A. P.)
ROME, Aug. 31.—Cardinal Della Foss, the papal chaplain, closed the double door to the conclave hall in which the college of cardinals is gathered in which to elect a successor to the late Pope Pius at 7:30 o'clock this afternoon. Outside stood the governor and marshal of the conclave. Not until a new Pope has been chosen by ballot will the doors be opened or any information of the procedure inside be known. All the telephone wires leading into the edifice have been cut and communication with the outside world severed.

Tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock the cardinals will gather in the conclave hall. The door will be opened and the cardinals will be seated in the conclave hall. If smoke should arise from the burning ballots, with which the cardinals will be seated, it will be a sign that a new Pope has been elected. The cardinals will be seated in the conclave hall. Majority of the cardinals, who entered the conclave, sought the latest news from the war. Several of them have close relatives in the conclave. Cardinal Foss, of Vienna, has five members of his family at the front with the Austrians. Cardinal Billot, of Lyons, has been killed and another dangerously wounded in the conclave. Cardinal von Hartmann, of Cologne, has two relatives who are officers in the German army.

Bullets and Bayonets Are Not Main War Implements.

Commissariat and Transportation Essentials.

Roumania Important Factor in Colossal Struggle.

"A war correspondent's impressions of the fighting armies" is the subject of a contribution to the World's Work "Manual of the Great War," by James F. J. Archibald, who says:

From a purely military standpoint a situation that staggers the mind of any one conversant with the technical side of warfare. Bullets and bayonets are the spectacular sources toward which the public invariably turns for their impressions, but as a matter of fact they are of the smallest importance in the military scheme. First of all comes the commissariat, and then the transportation.

It was Russia's line of communications that defeated the Manchurian, the Japanese. Her distance from her base of supplies and her general unpreparedness brought defeat to her arms, but today a different situation exists. The combatants who have cast their lot for war border, geographically, so closely upon one another that the problem of transportation does not enter largely into the present campaign; the theater of war is comparatively so small that there remains but one serious problem, the commissariat, and that has been fully anticipated by Austria and Germany. It remains to be seen whether Russia and France have food supplies sufficient to maintain their forces for the next eight months, while their communications are in jeopardy or possibly interrupted.

During the last few years I have spent many months in the field with these various armies. The Russians expressed me as a magnificent fighting force. They are heavy and slow in movement, but their rank and file knows no thought but that of obedience. I saw the Russian soldier in action, and he was a magnificent fighting force. respondence issued last night by the government press bureau illuminates the energetical activities hitherto of the "fakers" hovering fifty miles or more from the front. The British secretary of War informs the public that there are no correspondents on

The "fakes" have been of two sorts, either displaying an over-subtle talent for creative art. The first is the pure "fake," and the second is the fake composed of a mosaic of real facts and old lies broken from their ranks in the stress of battle, and imaginative filling in by the "fakera." In most cases the filling is considerably in excess of the framework.

These fabrications are the result of the lack of imagination of journalists by militarism and the urgent cry of editors for war news.

"On the other hand, we cannot send troops to the war zone in Europe, no matter what the fortunes of the alliance may be. In the first place, our agreement does not call for aid in that direction; in the second place, it would be almost impossible to get enough troops into the war zone to do any service at the last desperate hour.

"The Turkish Consul-General, Djelal Bey, laughed when he was asked about the probability of his country going to war.

"Turkey has just passed through no wars," he said. "Wars have long ceased to be interesting even as a commercial proposition. Turkey is not looking for a fight, either with the possible winner or the probable loser in this war. I believe that my country is taking the strict path of neutrality."

The idea is to visit the trade interests of the valley and to inspect the exposition and attend the National Apple Show in San Francisco.

Prosperity Argument.

An illustration of the advantage to interior merchants of ordering their goods through Los Angeles is furnished by Sanborn, Vail & Co. A consignment of goods received Saturday by this company on the steamship Missouri, and reloaded to Goldfield, arrived there yesterday, nearly a half-day before the ship weighed anchor for San Francisco.

Angelenos Abroad.

A cable to D. F. Robertson, manager of the California Savings Bank steamship agency, announces the departure from Yokohama last Saturday of the following Los Angeles tourists, who left this city July 9 last for an extended tour of the Orient: Dr. E. Spinks, Jack Forbes, John W. Spinks, Harlan E. Durant, Dr. and Mrs. Peter Mason and Mrs. M. Lowder.

Film Censor Warning.

The possible dire outcome of a violation of President Wilson's suggestion that all citizens of the United States refrain from entering into arguments relative to the European war is realistically presented in a film completed yesterday by the Universal Film Company, which will be sent today to the nation's Chief Executive for approval before presentation. The Chamber of Commerce suggested the making of this film.

Prohibits Loss Five Votes.

Five Prohibition ballots are lost. The tally sheets were mislaid in some unexplained manner by the election board of Precinct 266, which was yesterday held before the Board of Supervisors. The latter authorized the county counsel to petition the court for permission to have a recount of the Prohibition ballots, which are still safely stored away in the envelope in which they were placed at the time of the election.

Political Dance.

A unique dance in the interest of a Republican candidate will be given Wednesday evening at Blanchard Hall under the supervision of the Young Men's Republican Club. Amusement will be combined with civic duties, for the Y.M.R.C. members believe that the citizens should hear what the candidates have to say, and between the dances they will be given the chance to speak. The slogan adopted by the club for the occasion is "Come and dance with your favorite candidate." The dances will be named after the candidates, and "Frederick's waits" will undoubtedly be one of the favorites. A "Summerfield one-step" will appear on the programme as well as a "Bordwell two-step" and a "Pierce reel," as well as many other suitably designated.

To See Park Buildings.

A "get together" meeting of members of the Chamber of Commerce at Exposition Park the evening of the 18th inst., is being arranged by the Excursion Committee of the chamber. The exposition building and the museum and armory will be thrown open for the inspection of members and their families.

Kreh, No. 73 West Algeria street, Sierra Madre, for the benefit of the Juvenile Protective Association. An artistic programme of entertainment will be given, and refreshments and a caterer will be served.

Electric Cars Run to Sierra Madre.

Electric cars run to Sierra Madre five minutes after every hour, and there will be a motor bus to convey passengers to the gardens. Late car schedule has been arranged for the return trip. Automobiles will best take the county road from Pasadena, turn north on Baldwin avenue, and then to the left on Algeria street.

EMULATES FRIEND WHO KILLED SELF.

BUT SHOT MISSES HEART AND YOUNG TEAMSTER WILL BE WELL AGAIN.

John Handling, a 17-year-old teamster, shot himself yesterday afternoon because his chum, Floyd Mayhew, did the same. Mayhew was killed by a bullet in the head.

Handling did not select the scene of his death with such a good eye for romantic surroundings as Mayhew. The young southerner, homesick for his loved cotton fields, went to Westlake Park and there, while the band was playing a melody which haunted him, put a pistol to his head and fired. He lingered for a month and then died.

Undeterred by the pains Mayhew suffered, Handling went into a barn at No. 293 Central avenue yesterday afternoon and fired a bullet into his breast. It missed the heart, but punctured the left lung.

As the shot rang out the cashier in the offices of the John W. Snowden Company, was making out Handling's time check. The young man had been discharged. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital, put on the same table on which his chum, Mayhew, had been laid, and was later taken to the County Hospital, where Mayhew died.

LOS ANGELES HISTORY.

Will Be Portrayed in Pageant at Municipal Carnival—Programme Is Completed.

The programme for the municipal carnival to be given the night of the 8th inst., at the old Normal School site is complete.

The historical pageant will represent the four main periods in the development of Los Angeles, under the Spanish, Mexican, California republic and American flags. The last scene will represent the city as it is today.

All the various municipal departments will be well represented, featuring the health, education, safety, recreation, convenience and prosperity of the citizens.

The work of fitting up the grounds, the floats, stages and booths is rapidly going forward, so that everything will be in readiness for the opening.

CASES IN BANKRUPTCY.

Ernest R. McClure, also known as Ernest R. McClure, a building contractor of this city, filed a petition in bankruptcy yesterday. His debts amount to $211,24, and his assets are but $100, all exempt. None of his debts are secured.

James H. Campbell, a real estate agent, owes $119,312.91, unsecured claims, and $1915 secured, with assets amounting to $2160, and $650 of that amount claimed to be exempt, according to a petition filed yesterday.

BATTLE RELIC
DEALS DEATH.Owner Blown Up by a Shell
Found in Mexico.Birds in Same Room Immune to Terrific Crash.Bomb Probably Exploded by Accidental Fall.The explosion of a shell picked up a year ago from a Mexican battlefield, yesterday killed Frederick Betschen, 46, a janitor, at his home,
No. 131 North Hill street.The detonation rocked the houses in the neighborhood and brought officers running from Central Police Station, a block away. They found the kitchen a ruin and Mr. Betschen literally torn to little pieces but by some freak of fate, four canaries in cages suspended from the ceiling and a parrot perched near the mangled body were unscathed. The chatter of the parrot answered the merry chirp of the canaries as the officers entered.It was not until late yesterday afternoon that the direct cause of Mr.
Betschen's death was fully explained.
A woman neighbor had seen him handling what was later determined to be the explosive receptacle of a contact shell. It was not until Detective Shy found Mrs. H. L. Jones at No. 619 West Temple street that the history of the missile was obtained.

SHELL DESCRIBED.

It was described as a brass cylinder eight inches long and two inches in diameter. Projecting from one end of the cylinder was a thin steel shank.
Described to explosive experts at Central Station, it was pronounced a shell from which the lead nose had been removed. According to them, the contact of the bar set off a cap in the cylinder which ignited the explosive.
By their theory, Mr. Betschen either pounded the rod or dropped the shell.
This is the history of the shell as given by Mrs. Jones.A year ago a mining man of Blaine, Idaho, F. C. Bradley, went upon an excursion into Mexico. In the course of his journey he found himself upon a battlefield upon which a fight had taken place but recently. He saw the mounds over the trenches of dead,
and the litter general to every battleground. Among the relics that he brought back to the States was the shell. He evidently did not know the death that was enfolded in the brass cylinder, for he made no mention of it when he presented it to Mrs. Jones's father, now living in Long Beach.
From the sister it passed into the hands of Mrs. Jones, and Saturday, when she left the lodgings she had had with the Betschen family, she presented the unexploded shell to Mrs. Betschen. For several months it had hung suspended on the wall near the head of Mrs. Jones's bed.

KEPT FOR BURGLARS.

"I can't be packing this heavy thing around with me," Mrs. Jones said to Mrs. Betschen. "I have had it ready where I could reach it if a burglar should break in; you can use it for the same purpose.""I've a revolver," responded Mrs.
Betschen."Better take this," Mrs. Jones continued. "You might shoot a man with a revolver; this won't kill him."
The fragments of the shell were imbedded in the walls. That Mr.
Betschen dropped the bomb is indicated by the fact that his legs were shattered while the head was uninjured.The body was taken to the Butten periors.Mr. Betschen was a janitor in the Title Insurance and Trust building.

FEARS JAIL SENTENCE.

So Man Convicted of Selling Liquor to Indians Is Putting Up Long Fight.G. H. Bublitz, the San Bernardino liquor dealer, has his troubles.
Judge Wellborn in the United States District Court yesterday overruled the demurrer to the second indictment returned by the Federal grand jury against Bublitz, for selling wine to an Indian, one Augustine Benegas, and denied the motion to quash, whereupon Bublitz pleaded not guilty and interposed the plea of once in jeopardy and acquitted by the court, granting a new trial. The date for his trial was not set.About a year ago Bublitz was convicted of the charge against him, but Judge Wellborn granted him a new trial because he had not allowed to be brought before the court for the trial in behalf of Bublitz that Benegas was not an Indian.Matters were further complicated by the Supreme Court of the United States deciding that a child born of an Indian woman, no matter if the maternity of the father was Spanish or Mexican, is of Indian or mixed blood, that under the Federal statutes are the wards of the nation.Then Bublitz was re-indicted, and it was this instrument that an effort was made yesterday to knock out, but unsuccessfully. It is understood that but for the fact that the conviction carried a jail sentence, the San Bernardino man would have given up the fight long ago.

BENEFIT BY ENGLISH WOMEN.

Entertainment Thursday in Hollywood to Raise Funds.Mr. and Mrs. C. E. C. Hodgson, No.
7178 Franklin avenue, Hollywood, have lent their house and gardens for the benefit of a Red Cross fête, which is to be given by the Imperial Daughters of the British Empire Thursday.The gardens will be open to the pub-

ment will be given in the evening, when the grounds will be gaily illuminated with electric lanterns and a society vaudeville performance will be among the delights offered.All chapters of the Daughters of the Empire will participate, and inguinity will eclipse itself in the many entertaining booths and side-shows which are being devised for the occasion.Among the many promoters of the J. F. Lawton, Dr. and Mrs. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Whitaker of Glendale, Mrs. Herbert Bruce ica, Miss Florence Sutton, and large contingents of English people from Beverly, San Gabriel, Santa Monica, Pasadena and Los Angeles.

TELLS OF KIDNAPING.

Detectives Do Not Accept, But Investigate Lurid Story Girl Relates of Being Drugged.A tale of abduction with melodramatic thrills was reported to the police yesterday by Emma Shookman,
15 years old, who lives at No. 824
Tenth street. She says she was kidnaped Saturday night, and, curiously enough, was the day that her brother, Peter Ellis Shookman, was sentenced to serve ninety days in the City Jail for discharging firearms within the city limits. He had attempted to kill himself at the home of his sweetheart.Young Miss Shookman said she was walking near Eighth and Figueroa streets Saturday evening, when an automobile, with two young men as occupants, drew up to the curb. They asked her if she would have a ride,
and upon her refusal the two men leaped from the automobile and seized her, she said. While one drove, the other held her and prevented an outcry, later placing a drugged handkerchief under her nostrils, according to her story. She awoke, she said, in a vacant lot in the outskirts of the city and could not recall what had happened. According to Detective Dixon, a physician examined her and found no evidence of mistreatment. She returned to her home Sunday morning, but she did not accept her story, but are investigating it, nevertheless.

their names are in the Police Court

June 7 for disturbing the peace, after a Sabbath revel at Scheutzen Park, Johannetti, Giovannetti and three coinstigation of the offended passengers of the street car returning from the park, their three companions insisted that all five go free, or all five go to jail. The police made no effort to block their efforts to break into jail. But when every time the cases were called only the three local

"disturbers" of secondary magnitude showed for trial. Each time Johannetti, who had stood trial for his suspected part in the dynamite conspiracy, and Giovannetti, who has had to defend himself on a murder charge,
were in different sections of the State mouthing the propaganda of discontent.The records which brand the two as bail jumpers is mistaken, says Fred Moore, attorney for the quartette. He realizes it is a stigma and announces that he will present an affidavit in which he will set forth that Police Judge Chambers forfeited the $25 bail in the case of Johannetti and Giovanetti conditionally. The understanding was that the two should stand trial. Mr. Moore explains:"They were not present when the case was called simply through a misunderstanding," he continued. "I am satisfied that the judge did not consider their absence intentional. Nevertheless, for his own reasons, he forfeited the bail, but expressly stated that the forfeiture did not relieve the men of the necessity of standing trial.
Indeed, we have no desire to avoid it.
Saturday, I went to the City Prosecutor's office and I received the impression that the cases against all five were to be dismissed and consequently I did not have these two defendants come here from San Francisco."Mr. McDowell insists that the records show the cases as closed, with discredit attaching to Johannetti and Giovannetti.The five were arrested June 7, and arraigned the day following. They were over to July 6, and again to the 23rd. At that time the altorney for the defense started off service of bench warrants by a promise to have his clients in court. The 23rd of July, only two, the baker and the ice cream vender, were in court.

It is the veteran lawyer that Los placed on the main line of the South-

Southern Pacific certain concessions

Los Angeles in its route up the Coast.
It was the original intention of the company to build a direct line from Mojave to San Francisco, with a branch line to Los Angeles.

Two More Days. EXTEND TIME FOR HEARING.

Industrial Commission Will

Concedes Importance of Local Investigation.

Advance Agents Return;
Both Sides Prepare.

The time allowed for the hearing of the United States Commission on Industrial Relations in Los Angeles, which begins the 8th inst., has been extended from five days to one week. The announcement was made by Basil M. Manly, advance agent of the commission, who, with W. P. Harvey, another special agent of the government, arrived in the city again yesterday and registered at the Alexandria.

The agents are here to make final preliminary arrangements for the hearing. Mr. Manly will remain in the city until the session is concluded. He is in consultation with the employers and the labor representatives who will present the evidence to the commission.

The hearing will be held in the assembly-room at the Alexandria. Six members of the commission, including Chairman Frank P. Walsh, will sit at the hearing in Los Angeles. Mr. Manly said last evening that he would have a complete working schedule for the commission ready by tomorrow afternoon.

"The extension of time granted for the Los Angeles hearing is an acknowledgment of the importance of the local investigation on the part of the commission," Mr. Manly said. "The extension in time was requested by representatives of both the employers and the labor people."

"The hearing in Los Angeles will be one of the most important and interesting of the whole series. In no other city are the issues between the open and closed shop so closely drawn as here."

"Interest also has been added to the local investigation by the marked cooperation accorded to us by both the employers and the labor interests. Both sides are actively and earnestly engaged in the preparation of their evidence."

The members of the commission wish to have it understood that the while is welcome at all hearings. There is nothing secret in the proceedings. The working schedule, including the principal questions which will be considered, will be made public in advance of the session.

The employers' side of the case will be presented by F. J. Zschandelaar, secretary of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, with the assistance of a number of prominent business men. I. W. Butler has charge of the case for the labor interests. The commission will conclude its hearing in San Francisco Saturday. There will be an interval of two days before the beginning of the investigation in Los Angeles.

MORE NEEDED TO CANVASS RETURNS.

COMPLAINT MAY BE AHEAD OF TIME; SUPERVISORS
IN SESSION.

It is not expected that the canvass of the returns for the recent primary election will be completed much before the time allotted by law, September 10.

The Civil Service Commission was yesterday requested by the Board of Supervisors to submit additional names from which a choice of eight workers is to be made. There are sixty workers now employed, and twenty-seven more will have to be hired.

About forty of the employees expected to take the civil service examination to be held Thursday. Fearing that the canvass of the returns may not be completed in the time allowed, many employees are withdrawing from service. The Supervisors asked the Civil Service Commission to take up the matter of postponing the examination, which will be done at a meeting today.

Bonds to be given by county officers for the faithful performance of their duties will remain the same as heretofore. The Supervisors adopted a rule providing that the bonds in all cases shall be the same as before the charter went into effect, this being the last day for fixing the amount of the bonds. The bond of public administrator is $150,000; Tax Collector, $60,000; County Clerk, Auditor and Assessor, $25,000; Recorder, $10,000; District Attorney, $15,000, and Surveyor, $10,000. Two new bonds were ordered, one for road commissioner and the other for county counsel. The amount in each case was fixed at $10,000. The premium on all bonds will be paid by the county.

Under the special law governing the formation of new lighting districts outside of incorporated cities, the Supervisors yesterday passed a resolution authorizing the creation of two new public highway lighting districts, to be known as the Newhall lighting district and the Lancaster lighting district. In both districts it was voted to turn such lighting districts at a special election last Saturday. Bids will be advertised for within the next few weeks.

SMASHES TRUCK TO SAVE WOMAN.

To avoid striking a woman pedestrian who was crossing in the path of the motor truck he was driving, George Condon, 19 years old, deliveryman for a grocery store, ran his car into a telephone pole at Reservoir avenue and Sunset boulevard yesterday and was seriously injured. He is now at the California Hospital, suffering from a fracture of an ankle, abrasion of the left lower abdomen, and a slight concussion of the brain.

Young Condon was driving west on Sunset boulevard and expected to turn into Reservoir avenue. A woman, misunderstanding the course he was to take, passed in front of the machine. The driver then attempted to veer the car into Reservoir boulevard again. The consequence of the two streets forms a T at the point of which is a telephone pole. Into this the car crashed. Mr. Condon was precipitated over the dashboard striking his head against the pole.

Railroads To Cut Rates.

be if the goods were handled by water to Los Angeles, for instance, and then by rail to the interior point, found that the railroads were theoretically entitled to a return 25 per cent. above the port-to-port rate for the all-rail handling.

But in making this decision and promulgating rates which will become effective October 1 under the intermountain rate decision, the commission did not count on voluntary reduction or slashing of many rates by the railroads to meet growing water competition as a result of the opening of the Panama Canal. It did not figure on a course of events which would force the railroads to voluntarily cut a $1 rate to 50 cents and leave it with 25 per cent. of this residue, or 12½ cents as the back-haul return, provided the provisions of the intermountain-rate decision become automatically operative.

As Mr. Wann pointed out, the application of the intermountain decision to rates which the railroads voluntarily made would result in a wholesale cut of interior rates and would reduce the railroads' income by millions yearly.

"We wish to preserve a fair equilibrium of traffic moving by water and rail," he said. "If the results show that we are still handling 50 per cent. of the business, water competition will be accepted as desirable. But to ask us to realize 12½ cents a mile of water competition to and from restricted territory is too much and would be depriving us of a fair return for the service performed."

FIGURING UP INROADS.

Preparatory to the Chicago meeting, the auditing departments of the various western lines are compiling figures to show the inroads created by water competition. Before the opening of the Panama Canal the railroads handled 3,800,000 of the 5,100,000 tons of freight moving yearly between the East and West.

But with the opening of the big ditch the steamship companies cut rates to the point where they are offering the same service between New York and Los Angeles for from 20 to 60 per cent. less than the railroads are charging. It is stated that already the effect of this cut-rate competition has been felt. The full effect of it will be mathematically figured out in the auditing reports which the railroads will compile right up to the very day of the Chicago meeting.

Opposition to the railroads' contention is assured from the intermountain States. Their stand is that rates should be figured on a mileage basis and if the railroads are forced to meet water competition that the rates the railroads make between New York and Los Angeles or Pittsburgh and Los Angeles should be scaled down on a mileage basis to fit them. A meeting of shippers of six intermountain States will be held in Denver shortly to formulate a course of action.

Protect the stockings between rubber and rubber

The benefit to your pocket is not so much in the price—they're 15 to 25 cents, according to age of the child; about the same price as others. The economy is in the way the garters last; you don't have to buy so often. Special strong, serviceable elastic and non-elastic web; special strong pin, buckle and clasp.

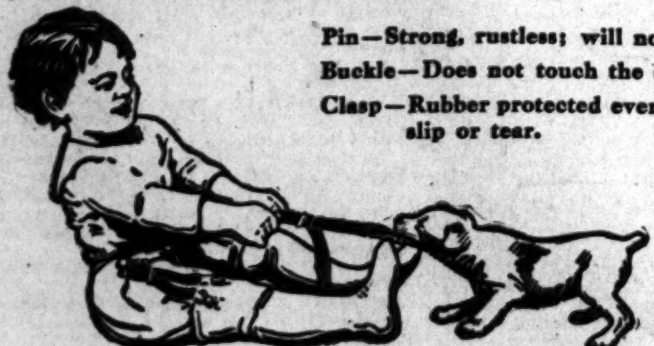

For the neat appearance of the child, these garters hold the stocking up securely, snugly; no loose, "sloppy" looking hose. For saving mending, the clasp holds the stocking, and protects it between a rubber button and a rubber clasp: can't tear, or wear a hole there. All the metal parts are covered so they don't touch the skin.

OVERSEAS—THE SITUATION TO DATE.
Though London had an Antwerp dispatch last night that Gen. Pau had won a "brilliant victory" over 50,000 Germans near Brionne, in the department of Somme, the disposition of London seemed to be to hold to the opinion that the Germans are continuing their march to Paris. It is less of a brilliant victory than the French in the victory of Gen. Pau. And this, too, at a time when the Premier of England is reprimanding the London Times (the "Thunderer" of yore) for printing a dispatch from France in which the correspondent took a rather pessimistic view of the work of the allies. Intimations have been dropped that the English are cutting in behind the Germans to separate the armies in France from their base along the Rhine. It may be true; and, if not true, it should be true if one were to credit the generals of the allies with the same wisdom and skill that he attributes to the German commanders—whenever they may be. For one way to defeat the Germans, it would seem, would be for the allies to get between them and Berlin in the same way that the Austro-German troops are said to be maneuvering to get between the impetuous Cossacks and St. Petersburg. Dispatches from the Russian border all agree now that the Russians are not in Koenigsberg as reported last week. The Austrian diplomats in this country are receiving advice every day of victories for the armies of the dual monarchy. The attitude of Turkey and Roumania continues to provoke guesses. The Turks are said to be eager to join forces with Germany. The Roumanian army, which it is said could play in this war a role similar to that it played in the second phase of the Balkan war, has all the appearances of a German fighting force. Moreover it is hinted that King Charles of Roumania is to abdicate in favor of a Hohenzollern.

SULZER'S PLATFORM.
William Sulzer, the impeached and discarded Governor of New York, has organized what he calls an "American" party, with 12,000 members, whose signatures were procured by canvasses at five cents per name. A convention of the party held at Syracuse dedicated itself to God, the people and the overthrow of the political bosses. The "bosses" referred to are Murphy and all politicians who oppose Sulzer; and by "the people" is meant the 12,000 people who signed the petitions asking Sulzer to run for Governor. But where does he come in is not made clear, nor does it appear that he is in the least grateful for Sulzer's support. "If I forget this cause," said a British orator in the last century, "may my God forget me." "He never will forget you," shouted his opponent. "He will see you damned first."

The platform adopted by the representatives of the 12,000 supporters of Sulzer resembles cheap boarding-house hash. It is a mixture of all the left-over old victuals and scraps of previous meals. It is a plagiarism of Progressive, Prohibition and Socialist declarations of party faith. The platform declares for freedom of worship (as if anybody proposes to establish despotism of worship), for a complete separation of church and state (who proposes to unite them?) for free public schools (did anybody ever hear of a paid public school?) for woman suffrage, initiative, referendum and recall, house cleaning of State offices, and honest direct primary, home rule, shorter work days, prohibition of child labor, better shop conditions, extermination of the "fifty-fifty" graft system, prosecution of highway grafters, and re-election of William Sulzer as Governor.

The platform fails to endorse the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution of the United States, the book of Job, Byron's poem of "Don Juan," the Revolutionary War, the War of 1812 or the Spanish War, and in it there is not one kind word for the equator.

GERMANY THE RICHEST.
The richest country in the world is the United States; the richest in Europe is Germany. This fact is significant in connection with the great war. Germany has a population which is greater by about 20,000,000 than that of Great Britain and about 26,000,000 more than that of France. This, too, will have its bearing on the great conflict.

Many people have been accustomed to think of both Great Britain and France as wealthier than Germany. They were when Kaiser William came to the throne, but since then vast changes have been brought about. Germany's march to pre-eminence has taken place entirely during the quarter-century of the Kaiser's reign. A commemorative work issued after the Kaiser's jubilee celebration last year made that pre-eminence plain and an important volume published in Berlin just before the war broke out emphasized it.

The author of this volume is Dr. Carl Helfferich, one of Germany's most interesting personalities. He is best known to the world as a director of the famous Deutsche Bank and as a scientific multi-millionaire, at once rich and learned. He is a personal friend of Kaiser William, and it has been said of him that he writes books as easily as he writes checks.

Dr. Helfferich set out to prove that Germany is far ahead of France in both national wealth and income and also, though less markedly, ahead of England in both respects. He shows that Germany's national wealth totals $75,000,000,000, as compared with $60,000,000,000 for England and $55,000,000,000 for France. England is still ahead of Germany in individual income, but Germany's much bigger population leaves England as well as France far behind in total income. Against Germany's total national income of $10,000,000,000 stands a French national income of $7,500,000,000 and an English national income of about $6,000,000,000. Of course the war will vastly affect these incomes, but as each of the nations will suffer in this respect, Germany's monetary superiority will stand her in good stead in the hour of trial.

It has already been pointed out in The Times that Germany has the most to gain through war. It also, in some respects, has the most to lose. In recent years Germany's efficiency grew at great speed. The war has checked that growth. Moreover, it has checked agriculture. In England and other parts of Europe great industrial development was accompanied by agricultural decline. In Germany, before the war, did not happen. Indeed Dr. Helfferich showed that year by year more agricultural production was shown even though the proportion of Germans employed in agriculture fell off. Agricultural production in Germany during the piping times of peace increased nearly as rapidly as the industrial output.

Another remarkable fact is that this increased agricultural production was obtained by a smaller farming population on land which, taken all round, is considered as among the worst in Europe. Dr. Helfferich shows that Germany was producing more rye, wheat, oats, barley and potatoes per acre tilled than fertile countries like Russia, France, Austria-Hungary, the United States and Canada. This was the result of science, machinery and improved methods of cultivation.

During the last few years of the Kaiser's reign Germany's income has increased every year by $250,000,000, all of which was invested productively. The Germans are a thrifty people, more saving than the English. They do not save so much as the French, but their superiority over the French lies in the fact that whereas their rivals hide gold in the family stocking or put it away in safe but unprofitable foreign loans the Germans make good use of theirs by investing productively. The total annual savings for each of several years before the war were placed at $2,500,000,000, most of which was put into enterprises which produced further wealth. Germany therefore stepped into the terrific combat "well heeled."

PEACE THROUGH STARVATION.
The proprietor of our one-cent, Progressive, morning contemporary seriously advocates that the United States shall put a stop to the war in Europe by placing an embargo on the exportation of grain or other food to the ports of the warring nations. He proposes to achieve peace by starving to death the men, women and children of Germany, England, Austria, France and to a great extent upon the United States for their bread.

This inhuman suggestion might not effect the desired end, for the people of German or French or Belgian towns might emulate the example set by the men of Leyden when the Netherlands warred with Spain in a former century.

The Spanish troops besieged the city and allowed no provisions to enter it. The inhabitants of Leyden were reduced to killing cats and dogs for food, and when the enemy taunted them with this fact the soldiers replied: "Ye call us dog-eaters and cat-eaters, and it is true. So long, then, as ye have a dog bark or a cat mew within these walls ye may know that the city of Leyden still holds out. And when all have perished but ourselves, be sure that we will devour our left arms, while with our right we fight for our God, our country and our women and children."

Under the later and more civilized rules of international law an American ship loaded with flour, not consigned to a government or for the use of an army or navy, but consigned to a private individual at Hampton or Liverpool or Ostend or Trieste or Calcutta, would not be subject to seizure on the high seas, for flour, under such circumstances, would not be contraband of war.

But Troupian proposes to hark back to the practices of the middle ages and withhold bread from hungry women and children in order to compel a peace, and it is proposed that this drastic and wicked course should be pursued, not by one of the belligerents, but by a neutral nation.

Why not go a little farther and embargo the departure from our shores of medicines, physicians and Red Cross nurses? Why not recommend the warring nations to mutually poison each other's wells, burn captured and undefended towns and scalp prisoners?

The recommendation that the United States should enter upon a campaign of subduing European peoples by starvation is worthy of the head and the heart of our steamed, one-cent, Progressive contemporary.

SEPTEMBER MORN.

BY EUGENE BROWN.

They're Off.
Thirty days hath September—Of the sort we best remember: Filled with life and light and pleasure; Brimming o'er with golden measure; Earth's great harvest now is stored; Work away and praise the Lord.

In the Beginning.
That funny noise you heard this morning was September coming up the road with bells on.

This is the most durable month of the whole year. If all the calendar were burned up there would be nothing left "sept" ember. Yet the name is considerable of a misnomer. When the old Romans were framing up the schedule of the year they began with March. When they got through with Junius, Julius and Augustus they could think of no other well Roman names and so they called the next month September, or even. The name therefore implies that this is the seventh month in the year, whereas it is in fact now the ninth. We ought really to take the initiative and christen the month after some of our own heroes like John L. Sullivan, Lydia Pinkham or Ty Cobb. This being the month the bulk of the corn crop is marketed, it might not be inappropriate to call it Cobb—after the Georgian with red ears.

Something Doing.
Hereabouts the thrifty rancher is now busy herding his flock of beans. This is some job, too, for there are several billions of them in California, and the armies and navies of the world may go on fighting in peace, for it looks as if there would be enough beans to go round. The bean is a great sustainer of life, although it is no protection from gunshot wounds. As a matter of fact the meek and lowly bean contains as much fuel for the human furnace as would be supplied by twice its weight in hamburger, prunes or caviare. It is a great war-time provender. In the Latin-American countries the feverish citizens fill up on beans and then go forth and wreck the administration that happens to be in power that day.

It is estimated that the bean crop of California this season would sustain 269,000 Socialists for 157 years. But what's the use?

The Game Goes On.
This is the open season for almost every kind of game except poker and taro. With the aid of a hunting license and $615 worth of artillery and traps a shrewd business man can go forth and spend $481 worth of time shooting 65 cents' worth of jack rabbits and then come home and brag about it. He goes forth after big game, but winds up with a dinky little game of pinocchio about the evening camp fire. But the instinct to hunt something is primitive in many men. They hunt trouble, snags and afflictions in the business and social world, and then take a shotgun or other death-dealing tools and go out after meadowlarks, squirrels and other blood-thirsty animals.

Looking Backward.
Just 2550 years ago today the blacksmiths and sheet-metal workers of the flourishing young city of Rome were holding their annual picnic at Remus Park, out at the end of the trolley line from the town. They had the usual programme of sack and potato races and a tug-of-war, but in the afternoon came an incident not found on the bill. The blare of a brass band playing "There'll Be a Hot Time" was heard and presently there marched on the grounds the attractively-gowned members of the Minerva Suffragette Club of Sabina, an old settlement about two leagues up country.

The interesting group were led by their president, Mrs. Hortense Commodus, a buxom, red-haired Amazon about seventeen hands high, but with real thirty wyes. The Sabini women were received with three hearty cheers. They explained that their husbands were busy hauling grapes to the winery and so they thought they would run over on their own hook and find out how the stalwart sons of Rome stood on the vote-for-women proposition.

Among those present from Rome that day was Andrew Jackson Romulus, son of the man who platted the town site and himself a fine old sport, who was also candidate for the Democratic nomination for senator. He got pretty well lit up at the last place on the way out and was feeling fine. When he saw Hortense and her languorous lamps he figured that she was his kind of people.

"Some chicken, that," he remarked to his chum, Cassius Q. Dago, cashier of the Rome National Bank.

"She surely looks like a blue-ribbon Rhode Island Red," assented Cassius.

So when Hortense came up smiling and plumed a badge on his toga, Romulus chuckled her under the chin and told her he was strong for the girls and when he was king he would give them anything they wanted. To prove it he made the high sign to the waiter and proceeded to open up a bottle of fizz.

Before long the whole crowd got quite chummy. They tangoed and played pussy winks and finally one pink little thing declared that the Rome boys were really jolly entertainers that they hated to go back to their husbands.

Romulus was holding Hortense's hand at the time and as he winked at her he whispered: "How about that, Hortense?"

"You got my number all right, Andy," she murmured, coyly.

Then Romulus just naturally gnawed her lip.

"We'll fix this somehow," said he, hoarsely, as he finally broke away. "We'll save your reputations, but keep the girls," he added.

He made plans accordingly. In the first place he telephoned to the police and fire departments to send their reserves out to the picnic, so that there was a good-sized crowd of huskies on the ground at eventide. He also had several trolley cars in waiting.

He was hurried to the Walsh home, 1315 Harvard boulevard, where Dr. W. J. after an investigation, found no injuries not of sufficient danger to cause any apprehension to his friends. LOYALTY UPHELD BY MOOSE HERDS.

SUPREME CONVENTION VOES AGAINST "NO GOD, NO MASTER" SLOGAN.

Delegates representing 800,000 men all walks of life, at the annual convention of the Loyal Order of Moose, held in Milwaukee, July 24 Aug. 1, adopted unanimously the following resolutions for the good of the order:

Whereas, it has come to the attention of this order that certain individuals are promoting a propaganda using the slogan, "No God and No Master," and whereas, this doctrine is in direct conflict with the obligations assumed by the members of this order, and is repugnant to our teachings;

Now, therefore, be it resolved, by the Supreme Lodge of the World, Loyal Order of Moose, in convention assembled, that all members and lodges in the consideration of applications for membership lay particular stress upon the provisions of our laws requiring a belief in Almighty God, and that any member found guilty of expressing or propagating such sentiments be expelled from the order.

And be it further resolved, that it is the duty of every member of this order to prefer charges against any member of the order who uses or promotes the slogan, "No God and No Master," or any other words implying infidelity or disloyalty to the government of the country in which the use of which he is a member is found to be repugnant to the teachings of the order, and that any member found guilty of expressing or propagating such sentiments be expelled from the order.

And be it further resolved, that we affirm the declaration of our laws requiring a belief in Almighty God, as a prerequisite for membership, and we reiterate our readiness to uphold and defend the order's teachings and loyalty to the country, and to the flag of the country, to which we owe allegiance.

And be it further resolved, that we urge the Committee on Resolutions to have to report favorably on this resolution, and ask its adoption.

HAP'S PUSSYCATS ONCE MORE BADLY MAULED.

Again or Yet?
PUSSIES ARE SMACKED DOWN.

Hapless Felines Drop Fifth Straight.

Henley and Smith Suffer in Bunches.

Seraphs Quit With a Dozen Tallies.

Hap's pet house cats were chased all over the Washington lot by the Seraphs in yesterday afternoon's postponed game. The score was 13 to 2. It might have been worse only Bill Abstein was soft-hearted and struck out in the ninth with men on second and third. As it was, he had to fish at a ball over his head to eliminate all chances of driving in some more runs.

Hogan's neighbors are up in arms. They claim that Hap is keeping them awake nights beating out "You got to quit kicking my dog around" on a piano.

KIDDING HAP.

The game itself was too one-sided to be interesting. The crowd spent most of the time kidding Hogan along, who was brave enough to stand out on the third base line and talk back.

The outcome never was in doubt. The Seraphs started out by making two runs off Cack Henley and Dillon and Jack Ryan to the string line. Even Hogan had to gulp a lump down his throat when he saw Ryan on the mound.

CACK PRESENT.

Cack Henley was on the mound four innings. He did not last one. When the fifth frame rolled around Henley was nowhere to be seen. The Angels had made five runs off the ex-Seal in the fourth after two men were out. It didn't take a Sherlock Holmes to give the reason for his disappearance.

Of course when the game was hopelessly lost Smith went in to pitch. He did not do half bad, considering that everyone of Hogan's twirlers were out of luck in the series. He only allowed ten hits and four runs in five innings.

THE OBJECT.

The object of the game was to fatten the Seraphs batting averages, anyway.

The main trouble with Henley was lack of control.

The Seraphs made two runs in the first frame and kept right at it until the end of the game. The only innings in which Dillon did not hear the ball ring were the third and eighth.

The real blow up came in the fourth. Dillon every flier root-er cherished some hope. There were two down, when Brooks started the fireworks.

THE DELUGE.

He drove a liner across second. Ryan plugged out another single and Brooks was on second. Walters did the same. The bases were full. Then Cack Henley uncorked a wild pitch. Brooks trotted home, Ryan took third and after second. Everybody hooted. Henley walked. Walters. He liked to see the bases.

Cheer up, Hap.

The cheerless leader of the Venice Pussycats is here seen dragging his joyless limbs from the scene of carnage after yesterday's game. (7) Drooping six games out of eight is enough to take the smile from anybody's face.

ARMSTRONG SMASHES GOLF RECORD UP AT DEL MONTE.

BY ALMA WHITTAKER.

E. S. ARMSTRONG, upon whose golf prowess Southern California is basing its hopes of championship distinction at Del Monte, has just broken the record of the course up there with a dazzling 67. He has been up there for two weeks and has practiced to good purpose, for of course is two strokes harder than it was a year ago when Jack Neville holds the title, made his record score of 68, which Armstrong has now so brilliantly beaten.

Far for the course is 74—it was 72 when Neville made his 68, a record.

KILBANE WILL TRAIN AT VENICE OR NOT AT ALL.

JOHNNY KILBANE, featherweight champion of the world, may train for his coming fight with Johnny Dundee in his own back yard, where he can't be seen.

Kilbane has struck. He will either train in Venice or he won't train at all.

On account of the city ordinance, passed in Venice forbidding fighters to have training quarters at that city the champion will not be able to work out in his usual place.

As Johnny had brought his whole family out to California with him, he heard of this decision on the part of the City Trustees with dismay. Several other places were suggested to him, but he came to Los Angeles yesterday and announced that he would train in Venice anyhow.

"If I can't train in public I hired training quarters I will have a punching bag put up and train in my own back yard and be rubbed down in my own bathroom. The City Trustees of Venice or anywhere else can't stop me from that."

Inasmuch as Johnny's public training stunts seldom had anything to do with his real training, it won't make much difference anyhow. Kilbane had two kinds of training; one came off in private with his manager as the only audience, the other was bunk for the benefit of the public. No one but Jimmy Dunn ever saw him practice his real stuff.

Local Riflemen Beat English.

NARROW MARGIN BETWEEN SCORES.

FIRST OF THREE MATCHES IS TAKEN BY THE LOCAL RIFLEMEN.

Los Angeles Rifle and Revolver Club, 1204; Rifle Clubs Federation of England, 1206. California won by ninety-eight points.

The Englishmen stated that they would fire the second match as scheduled. This is to be shot in October under the English conditions, ranges 200, 300, 400 and 500 yards, all prone, with much smaller counting bullseyes than those used in America. Here the conditions are less leveled. The California men are used to prone shooting, and while the English are more skillful long-range men, and better holders prone, the American New Springfield rifle has arranged to give the California team the second match.

FAMOUS SPOT.

The English team fired at Runnymede, six miles from Windsor Castle. This is the first international match of the Englishmen firing.

FIRST MATCH.

The match shot by the Englishmen last Friday, and by Los Angeles a week ago Sunday, is the first of three between the local riflemen and the great Rifle Clubs Federation of England, an organization taking in nearly 5000 men.

This first match was shot under American conditions, ten shots per man, with but one sighting shot. The Englishmen, and rarely use the sight. Therefore the American team had the better of it from the start, an advantage offset by the greater number of the Englishmen firing.

POOR SHOWING.

For Los Angeles but thirteen men appeared, the ten high counting. The feeling that the English would not fire kept most of the locals away, and the few that showed up shot most poorly. Time and again the high ten men during the Pacific Coast League matches just over piled up fifty points.

More than did the team firing against England. It was enough to win, but it was not creditable to the local men.

Many of the English shots were of the regular army, or of the First Reserve, and went to the front with the English expeditionary force. Plenty of men were left to fire, but without doubt the heart was a bit out.

BROWN NOW REPENTANT.

OLD RIVALS TO MINGLE AGAIN.

McLoughlin Meets Williams Today.

Clothier Was Easy for the Champ.

Williams Showed Remarkable Form.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEWPORT (R. I.) Aug. 31.—History repeated itself on the Casino courts today when Maurice E. McLoughlin of San Francisco and R. Williams of Philadelphia met in the all-coners tournament for the national singles lawn tennis championship.

The betting tonight was 4 to 1 that McLoughlin would capture the title tomorrow for the third time. The odds were somewhat shorter on Williams' ability to take a set from the champion, as he did in the final last year.

McLoughlin won his place in the finals by defeating former Champion William J. Clothier of Philadelphia in straight sets, 6-4, 6-4, 6-1. Williams came through with a similar victory over Ella Fottrell of San Francisco, 6-4, 6-2, 6-2.

Of the two winners, the playing of Williams was the more impressive. He handled fearfully Fottrell's terrific service, the most severe seen on the Casino courts this year, not excepting that of McLoughlin. It took him nearly a set, however, to fathom the drives. After that, Williams speeded up his own service until he obtained as many aces as Fottrell. The Californian's only attack was his service. He was weak at the net, served the court poorly and lacked generalship.

CAREFUL.

Clothier played his usual careful, deliberate game against McLoughlin, and ran the first set up in four games to three, when McLoughlin jumped in and took the next three games in succession. The champion had a bad slump in the second set, driving the net repeatedly. Clothier, still playing conservatively, obtained an even longer lead before McLoughlin, with the set four games to one against him, rallied, and swept through the next five games with the loss of only four points.

Clothier had very little strength left for the third set and but for McLoughlin's errors, it would have been over in the seventh game.

In the afternoon Miss Cary of Newport and R. Lindsay Murray of San Francisco won the mixed doubles tennis tournament, defeating Miss R. Fenn of Boston and G. L. Wrenn of New York, 6-1, 6-4.

MICHIGAN STARS.

Goetz, the former Mercersburg Academy hurdler, will enter Michigan University with Albert Smalley Robinson this fall. This pair is a track team in itself. Goetz has the makings of the best all-round athlete America has ever produced, next even excepting Jim Thorpe—while Robinson has proven one of the best sprinters in scholastic ranks.

FARMERS KEEP OUT REDLANDS SPORTS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—RELLYNS DISPATCH.]

REDLANDS, Aug. 31.—Sportsmen of Redlands were somewhat nettled or disgusted today when they learned that the ranchmen in Live Oak Canyon and other sections had posted their properties against hunters. This was provoking, because a large number of local hunters had arranged to hunt for doves in that section. The dove season opens tomorrow (Tuesday). Several of the hunters declare that a large section of the best dove territory is closed to hunters, and that new fields will have to be sought out before the sport can be enjoyed to any extent.

SOMETHING NEW.

AUTOMOBILE OWNERS MAY REGISTER IN LOS ANGELES.

The southern office will handle the automobile registrations from the following counties: Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, Ventura, Orange, San Bernado, Riverside, San Diego and Imperial.

The office will be placed in charge of W. S. Gobel, who is now at the head of the registry department of the motor vehicle registration in this city.

Frank N. Cole will represent State Treasurer Roberts. The accounting system will be inaugurated by Corning de Sales of the State Board of Control.

National Champ in 1910 in Fine Form.

Quinmet Is Three Strokes to the Bad.

Robert Hunter Manages to Be Survivor.

(BY A. P. HUNT WEBER.)
MANCHESTER, (Vt.) Aug. 31.—Leading a field of 104 golfers, aspirants for national amateur golf championship honors, W. C. Fownes, set a new record for medal amateur championship play today. His card of seventy, returned at the end of the first round of eighteen holes qualification play over the links of the Elwank Country Club, was the lowest ever returned for medal play at an amateur championship meeting in this country. It also set a record for the new Elwank course.

Fownes, who was national champion in 1910, had an advantage of two strokes over the second best card

BIG THREE.
Francis Quinmet of Woodland, amateur champion of France, and national open champion last year, scored the best performance of the trio of high-ranking players in which Jerome Travers, present amateur title holder, and Charles Evans, Jr., of Edgewater, also are grouped. SPEEDY PACER AVERAGES TWO MINUTES NEARLY AT SYRACUSE.

ELECTRIC PATCH MAKES BIG HIT.

SON OF DAN PATCH MAKES A FINE SHOWING AT DES MOINES.

SYRACUSE (N. Y.) Aug. 31.—Directum II, the chestnut stallion owned by James Butler, New York City, and driven by Robert Snodgrass, furnished the sensation of the opening day's programme at the Grand Circuit races here today by establishing two new world's records and equalling the pacing record of two minutes established by Williams at Grand Rapids earlier this season.

In winning the free-for-all pace, valued at $5000, Directum II stepped the last two of three heats in two minutes flat, beating Frank Bogash in each. Frank Bogash won the first heat in 2:02 1/4. By pacing in two minutes in the third heat Directum II broke the record of 2:00 1/4, established by Star Pointer at Springfield, Ill., in 1907. The average time of the winner gives him the world's race record of more than one heat.

The meeting was not without other features, in that Star Winter, the sensational trotter, driven by Lyn McDonald, lost his first heat of the season today. He also lost the race, the 2:10 trot, Maria Bellini noting him out in the stretch of three sensational heats.

An amateur race for two-year-olds colts valued at $3000 brought on a good contest. Ernest J. White, winning with Eudora Spier by Directum Spier.

Los Anworth had things his own way in the three-year-old stake, Lulu Patchen won the final race, the 2:15 pace, after five heats. He horse won more than two heats, but because of the Syracuse conditions the race was terminated at the end of five heats.

WAR PREVENTS BALLOON RACE.
NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Owing to the situation in Europe, which precludes the possibility of several of the entrants competing in the international balloon race which was to have started from Kansas City, Mo., on October 8, the event has been postponed indefinitely. Action to this effect was taken today by the Contest Committee of the Aero Club of America.

Germany had three entrants; Austria, two; France, three; Belgium, two; Switzerland, one, and the United States, three. In the opinion of the committee, the race would not be of a sufficiently international character if only Switzerland and the United States were represented.

CARDINALS TO GATHER TODAY.

Varsity to Be as Strong as Last Fall.

Cards Confident of Beating the Bears.

Practice to Start Saturday Afternoon.

BY HOWARD W. ANGUS.

Stanford throws open wide its doors today. The college year is here and the Rugby season is on.

From now on nothing will come out of the north, but the talk of drama, dribbling and passing rushes. Depend on the Stanford-California battle will be all the rage.

Unless the Cardinals of today were a steeper lot last night than ever Cardinals were before, they hurried up and down fraternity row shouting and crowded wildly into Rodina Hall.

The upper classmen surely greeted each other with echoing slaps on the back and friendly questions, while the humble freshmen seemed almost with sickly grins, feeling tremblingly lost in the excitement.

RUDDY TIE TALK.

And everywhere that Cards gathered last night the talk was not of studies, but of Rugby. The topic of the night must have been the varsity.

Capt. "Doc" Gard of Glendora stands on a higher pedestal in Palo Alto than any other man in the game. He is the man who is being pointed out to the freshmen.

Although Coach Flinn will not call the men into the first practice until Saturday, Capt. Gard and the veterans will be busy discussing plans with him; while the others will be busy discussing them. It is safe to say that over a hundred Cardinals will be fitted out in suits next Friday.

The rally of Thursday night will bring all Stanford to a white heat.

FRACIOUS REGIONS.

The first Stanford game came a week from Saturday, when the varsity plays the Olympic Club and the freshmen the Mission High School.

California's varsity will play the Olympic fifteen this Saturday, while the freshmen will tackle the Barbarians.

These two games will set the dopamine scribbling, although they will tell little. All last season Stanford has been the best showing until it came to the real struggle, then the Cardinals did the playing.

CONFIDENCE REGIONS.

Last fall Stanford began whipping its varsity into shape with more or less doubt. A long list of Bear victories started in the even battle the Cards had waged in a sea of mud at California.

This year Stanford is confident. With the exception of two forwards, the famous 1913 varsity is back ready to begin the long season which will end in another titanic struggle.

PECK AND DARSIE GONE.

The two missing players are "Story" Peck and Acting Capt. Darsie. Peck was a front-ranker and Darsie a back.

No Cardinal will concede California shows. The most liberal of them will admit that the Cards might win if a miracle happens. They are entering the season with every hope of victory.

In "Doc" Gard, Stanford has produced the greatest breakthrough America has produced. He is all over the field. Wherever the ball is, there is Gard. If the Cardinals will follow their captain the Bears are beaten before the game is played.

GREAT MACHINE.

Back of him is a wonderful machine. Last year before the big game everybody prophesied that the Bears would wreck havoc with the Cards' armor. The Cardinals more

DOVE SEASON OPENS TODAY.

The dove season opens today. Last night the hunters hurried out to their favorite stalking grounds. Early this morning several hundred heard the alarm clock ring at 4 o'clock.

Deck Gard.

Of Glendora, one of the best break-aways on the Coast, who will lead the Stanford team on the gridiron this year.

than held their own. Added to that mighty pack will be Jim Wiley, the wonderful Australian.

The backfield is the same as that of last season. Fast, spectacular, it is one of the smoothest-working machines that ever passed a ball down the gridiron.

In the front rank "Story" Peck and "Tubby" Wiley will be back. Both are strong. Hall is an iron man. He is going as hard at the end of the game as when it starts. He was the man that Coach Brown placed opposite McKim.

This year's Bear captain met his match.

A young giant by the name of Billman is slated for the place left empty by Peck. All his life he spent up in the hills, doing woodwork and trees around. They led him over to the physical laboratory last spring and gave him a 160-pound weight to his chin without effort.

The side-rankers will be Phil Clover and, perhaps, Jim Wiley.

"Jumbo" at LOCK.

"Jumbo" Glan will be back at lock. "Deck" Gard will be a breaker, while ex-Capt. Jimmy Thoburn, Howard Soper or Card, who captained the Bears last year, will fight it out for Darsie's place.

THE BACK FIELD.

These men form the Cardinal pack. They will be on the ball like Eskimo dogs on a piece of walrus meat. They are terrible fighters, strong and fast.

Both Erb and Tilton, the half-backs, will be out again. If these two men were on the combination would be a sensational half. Erb is strong on the offense, Tilton on the defense.

Charlie Austin will be at first five again. There is no danger of any body taking his place away from him. Leachman will be out for second five.

Dan Carroll, the Australian and the brains of the back, will be at center three-quarters. Joe Erbin and Frank McKim are the wings. Andrews, the fullback, seems sure of his job in the Cy Davidson should be the utility man of the back field, as he was last season.

The freshman that breaks into the team will be a breaker.

Some Switching.

Ed Stanton Gets High Honor.

LOCAL BOY BOSS OF THE BIG "C."

TRACK CAPTAIN ONE OF BEST-KNOWN ATHLETES AT CALIFORNIA.

BY EDWIN WINE-REUTERS SPECIAL BERKELEY, Aug. 31.—Eddie Stanton is announced as next president of the big "C" society, the controlling factor in university athletics.

Stanton is a Los Angeles product whose athletic career began at L. A. High, and culminated with presidency of the strongest college athletic body in the State.

Upon the cinders Stanton has been one of California's mainstays in the short distance.

STARTED EARLY.

He is one of the few athletes who have won their "C" in their freshman year. Stanton is a member of the several campus honorary societies and belongs to the Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.

Archibald Hunt, the whirlwind wing three-quarter from Santa Barbara, is detained in the students' infirmary with an attack of appendicitis. His condition is improving, but it is not yet known whether or not an operation will be necessary.

The possible loss of Hunt from the back field has furnished football fans a gloomy topic of conversation today. California sorely needs fast men behind the scrum and possible withdrawal of a star man is serious to football hopes.

Regarding the holding of the 1915 Olympic games scheduled for Berlin in 1916, Arthur Duffey, the well-known athletic authority, says: "With all this talk about when the next Olympics will be held it has every body guessing. Personally I wouldn't be surprised if there were no games held at all, especially if the European war continues. And the Olympic Committee would do well to postpone such contests indefinitely. Of what good would a set of Olympic games be with Germany, France, England and some of the other continental countries unable to send their full strength. If Uncle Sam cannot meet the whole world in such a set of games, why have any such meet at all?"

University of California crew candidates for freshmen and "varsity" eights are to make an early start this season. Theoretical instruction is to begin early in September and before the month is over the first-year men will be practicing on Lake Merritt.

With the return of Coach Stephenson from the East in late September, the "varsity" will start training, and determination to retrieve former losses is responsible for the long training season. California, annually races against Leland Stanford and University of Washington (Seattle), and two years and then rowed in the Foughkeepsie regatta.

Ed Stanton Gets High Honor.

LOCAL BOY BOSS OF THE BIG "C."

TRACK CAPTAIN ONE OF BEST-KNOWN ATHLETES AT CALIFORNIA.

BY EDWIN WINE-REUTERS SPECIAL BERKELEY, Aug. 31.—Eddie Stanton is announced as next president of the big "C" society, the controlling factor in university athletics.

Stanton is a Los Angeles product whose athletic career began at L. A. High, and culminated with presidency of the strongest college athletic body in the State.

Upon the cinders Stanton has been one of California's mainstays in the short distance.

STARTED EARLY.

He is one of the few athletes who have won their "C" in their freshman year. Stanton is a member of the several campus honorary societies and belongs to the Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.

Archibald Hunt, the whirlwind wing three-quarter from Santa Barbara, is detained in the students' infirmary with an attack of appendicitis. His condition is improving, but it is not yet known whether or not an operation will be necessary.

The possible loss of Hunt from the back field has furnished football fans a gloomy topic of conversation today. California sorely needs fast men behind the scrum and possible withdrawal of a star man is serious to football hopes.

Regarding the holding of the 1915 Olympic games scheduled for Berlin in 1916, Arthur Duffey, the well-known athletic authority, says: "With all this talk about when the next Olympics will be held it has every body guessing. Personally I wouldn't be surprised if there were no games held at all, especially if the European war continues. And the Olympic Committee would do well to postpone such contests indefinitely. Of what good would a set of Olympic games be with Germany, France, England and some of the other continental countries unable to send their full strength. If Uncle Sam cannot meet the whole world in such a set of games, why have any such meet at all?"

University of California crew candidates for freshmen and "varsity" eights are to make an early start this season. Theoretical instruction is to begin early in September and before the month is over the first-year men will be practicing on Lake Merritt.

With the return of Coach Stephenson from the East in late September, the "varsity" will start training, and determination to retrieve former losses is responsible for the long training season. California, annually races against Leland Stanford and University of Washington (Seattle), and two years and then rowed in the Foughkeepsie regatta.

OVER TWENTY MILLION CASH.

BO-GALED BUILDING "SLUMP" IS BIG BOOST.

Your Improvements Create Surprises When Totalled, Showing Talk of "Business Depression" Doesn't Apply Here—Permits for August More Than $1,250,000.

Permits to the number of 754 were issued by the city building department for new structures of all kinds during the month of August. These represented improvements to cost in the aggregate $1,257,498. In addition, 3192 permits were granted for sanitary plumbing, gas fitting and sewers, the cost of these being included under a separate value known as "slump."

The largest single permit for the month was that for the construction of the new ten-story Merritt block at Eighth and Broadway, the foundations for which are now being installed. This handsome office structure will cost, without equipment, $200,000, and will be one of the most noteworthy of the 1914 improvements. More than 800 permits were taken out during August for new private houses. The cost of these dwellings will approximate $450,000.

To date for the year, 7205 permits have been issued for new buildings in this city. The total output represented by these structures, according to the official report, is $12,445,490.

In discussing the building situation yesterday, Chief Deputy Inspector John C. Cohn, after making a general survey of the city, said that the volume of construction here has been in excess of $20,000,000, and that could not be called a bad record for any year. The exact building valuation from September 1, 1913, to September 1, 1914, is $30,000,000. From September 1, 1907, to September 1, 1908, the time when things were dead and there was no mistake about it, the cost of construction operations was only $1,000,000.

"The present dullness is a comparative dullness, for if we had been so accustomed to phenomenal building totals, we wouldn't be disappointed in what in any other city of the size would be considered real activity."

Where Is He?

CALL FOR MR. FIVE HUNDRED.

HIS FEE IS PAID, SO REALITY MEN WANT HIM.

Men of Mystery Who Received Right to Be the Five Hundredth Member Years Ago Is Now Being Searched for, as His Time Has Come.

If the man who wanted to be the five hundredth member of the Los Angeles Realty Board is present, will he kindly arise and make his presence known? The board has been hunting everywhere for him and is finally "up in the air" because he can't be found.

You see, it was this way: Three years ago—to be exact, it was November 15, 1911—an eastern realty broker giving the name of R. P. Elliott announced that he wanted to become a member of the board. He gave an address in New York and elsewhere. His application would have been acted upon at once but for an unusual request he made in connection with it.

It was at a time when the Realty Board had only about 200 members and when there was just being launched the great campaign that on July 1 of this year had brought the active membership of the organization up to 516. The eastern applicant proposed that he was a confirmed, tried-in-the-wool Los Angeles booster in spite of the tenderness of his feet in the score of residence, and that he firmly expected to see the board's membership go up to the 500 mark. Then he reached down into his pocket and handed out a $10 bill, the cost of a membership.

"Keep that money until you have enrolled 499 members and then put me down for the five hundredth," he requested of the secretary. Neither the secretary nor any other officer of the board has seen him since. The search for Mr. Elliott began in May, when the membership committee had reached the 499's. The applicant had given as his address No. 101 South Grand avenue, but personal investigation demonstrated that he was not to be found there. The 499 mark was reached and passed and still there was no sign of the missing five hundredth member. None of the 516 members knows anything about him, and all have been questioned.

July 1 the membership fee of the board was raised from $10 to $20 and for some time the officers of the organization held to the hope that this policy-promulgator fact might lead the client Mr. Elliott to come in and claim his membership. It was a false expectation. Either the missing five hundredth man doesn't care a cent for a mere trifle like $40 or he doesn't know what he's missing.

The perplexity of the Realty Board officials is deepening into gloom. There are any number of non-members of the board who would like to buy that bargain-rate membership now that the price has gone up, and they would like to sell it. But there is the ghost of that five hundredth member who isn't a member, and who has paid for that one particular membership, and who some day, near at hand or far away, is waiting around with the receipt for the fee in his pocket.

Union Hollywood Water Company's Statement To Its Consumers

The following statement is issued for your information in reference to the differences between the Union Hollywood Water Company and the Board of Public Service Commissioners regarding the proposed purchase by the City of Los Angeles of a portion of the Water Company's system.

These differences did not arise over the question of valuation, but upon the refusal of the Water Board to include in their offer any allowance for a considerable portion of our property required by the city, or any allowance for losses necessarily resulting from dismemberment of the system.

MULHOLLAND'S VALUATIONS ACCEPTABLE.

As shown by his report to the Water Board, Mr. Mulholland placed the following valuations on the portion of our system required by the city, viz:

	Duplication Cost	Present Value
Item (1) Pipe system (no paving) .....	$610,769	$447,578
Item (2) Services .....	96,904	96,904
Item (3) Meters .....	95,458	76,366
Item (4) Fire Hydrants (private) .....	950	950
		$621,798

Item (5) He considered the rights of way worth approximately .....

Item (6) He considered maps, books, tools, trucks, automobiles, stock, etc., worth approximately .....

Item (7) In these valuations he made no allowance for paving over mains, which in paved streets only, he estimated at .....

Total .....

While demanding all the property included in the above valuations, the Water Board offered to pay only the aggregate valuation placed by Mr. Mulholland on items 1, 5 and 6, amounting to $470,452.

This offer contained no allowance for items 2, 3, 4 and 7, nor for Going Concern value, nor for loss by dismemberment, nor for paving over mains in graveled and oiled streets.

Mr. Mulholland made no estimate on Going Concern, or Loss by Dismemberment, or pavement over mains in graveled and oiled streets, and as to those items, the Water Company supplied figures and estimates during the negotiations.

WATER COMPANY'S POSITION.

The Water Company's position has been and is still, that the City should pay the reasonable value of all the property it acquires. The valuations placed by Mr. Mulholland on items 2, 3, 4 and 7, above set forth, are acceptable to the Water Company, and the differences arose chiefly over the refusal of the Water Board to allow anything for those items; and the unwillingness of the Water Company to convey them without payment.

IN REGARD TO SERVICE CONNECTIONS AND METERS.

The assertion has been made that the service and meters do not belong to the Water Company; that they were paid for by the consumers, etc.

It has been suggested that an explanation should be made to place this matter in its proper light before our consumers.

Ever since we have been in business the rate fixing ordinances under which we operated have prescribed the rate or charge to be made for services and meters, which we collected, just as we did the water rates fixed by ordinances from the consumers; the money thus collected belonged to us, in the same way as the money received for water consumed.

It is but fair to presume that the rate fixing bodies (including the City Council of Los Angeles) in enacting such ordinances, intended that the Water Company should be permitted to earn an income from the installation of services and meters, and in the suits which have been tried, and are now pending on appeal to the Supreme Court, wherein the Water Company sought to restrain the enforcement of the water rates on the ground that they were too low, and would not afford the Water Company a fair revenue, two Superior Judges have ruled that the moneys received by the Water Company for services and meters must be included in the revenue or income which the Water Company was entitled to earn, and when so included that the rates attacked would be adequate. In each case, had the ruling been otherwise upon this point alone, the rates could not have been sustained.

The same course has been followed by the Board of Public Utilities whose report to the Council recommending rates for 1910 (which was based upon the actual revenue of 1909) included the money collected for services and meters, as a part of the Water Company's revenue.

Thus it is apparent that the Water Company has been charged with the money so collected as a part of its revenue, and therefore has paid for the service and meters out of its income, in this that its rates have been cut down proportionately and to take the meters and services from the Company without paying therefore would be taking its property unjustly and contrary to the spirit of the law.

If the City were to condemn our system it would certainly be required to pay us the reasonable value of the services and meters, as well as for the pipes, inasmuch as we have paid for these indirectly by a proportionate diminution in the rates for water, as held by the courts in previous rate cases, and by the Board of Public Utilities.

Ownership of the services and meters is unquestionably in the Water Company, and it has replaced a great many of them without expense to the consumers. It has also paid all taxes and repairs on them, including those levied by the City.

PAVEMENT OVER MAINS.

On this item the Water Company offered to accept Mr. Mulholland's valuation of $103,983 (item 7) although it included nothing for pavement of graveled and oiled streets.

In cases involving the purchase by a city of existing water plants, the reasonable value of paving over mains has been regarded by the courts as allowable, on the theory that it would cost the City at least the reasonable value thereof to construct or acquire a system of its own. In purchasing our plant with pipes in the ground, and paving done, the City saves the expense of re-paving over mains, and the enormous inconvenience resulting from tearing up two hundred miles of streets at one time.

GOING CONCERN AND LOSS BY DISMEMBERMENT.

When deprived of its system, proposed to be acquired by the City, the Water Company must go out of business and can no longer use its pumping plants, machinery, reservoirs, wells, water rights, etc. Much of this property will be rendered valueless, excepting what could be realized therefor at a junk sale. The reservoir sites have a value as real estate, but to render them useful for that purpose the reservoirs must be demolished and moved, at a heavy expense. The wells and water rights are similarly affected by dismemberment.

The loss of the Water Company's business, commonly known as "Going Concern," is an element which should be taken into consideration and a fair allowance made therefor.

COST OF NEW SYSTEM.

Mr. Mulholland estimated that (not including services and meters) a new pipe system of the same mileage as ours would cost $1,047,500.

To this should be added:

Cost of new services (his estimate) .....	$ 96,904
Cost of new meters (his estimate) .....	95,458
Cost of paving over mains in paved streets (his estimate) .....	103,983
Cost of paving over mains in graveled and oiled streets (our estimate) .....	154,770
Cost of paving over 10,801 services in paved, graveled and oiled streets (our estimate) .....	36,000
Total .....	$1,534,115

The additional injury and inconvenience which would result from digging trenches for mains in two hundred miles of streets, and installing 10,801 service connections, with necessary excavations in streets and parkways, and making connections with 560 fire hydrants, is also a subject of grave consideration.

Contrasting the above estimate with the offer made by the Water Company to the Water Board, it will be seen that the City can acquire our system for about one-half of the cost of a new system.

THE WATER COMPANY'S OFFER.

We made counter propositions to which the excluded elements of value were added, and they were rejected by the Water Board.

The Water Company's attorney then made the following proposition to the Board, viz:

"I am instructed by the Union Hollywood Water Company in view of the fact that our last proposition is not acceptable, and that the Board will not consider making us any better offer than $470,542.00, to now offer on behalf of the Water Company, to submit the question of what would be a fair and reasonable price to be paid by the City of Los Angeles, or the Water Board, for the portion of our system which it seeks to acquire, to the Board of Railway Commissioners of the State of California.

"We will add to that the further stipulation, in order to save much time in the taking of extensive evidence by that Board, to stipulate to the valuation placed by Mr. Mulholland on the various elements that go to make up the Company's property, so far as he has placed any valuation thereon.

"We have some elements of value, or loss, rather, which might be stated under two heads. One is loss by dismemberment, on which Mr. Mulholland made no estimate to determine what that loss would be. On that point the Railroad Commission would have to take testimony, and decide what allowance should be made. If they should decide that we were entitled to anything for loss of going concern, they would have to decide that question also.

"We make this offer in order to show the Board, and if necessary, the public, that we are willing to leave the question to any tribunal that is regarded as fair and just, and I believe the Railroad Commission is so regarded."

We would accept Railroad Commission's Award.

It will be seen from the foregoing that the Water Company has offered to accept the valuations of Mr. Mulholland, and to submit the elements not considered by him to the Railroad Commission, and to abide by that decision.

A speedy settlement of the question can thus be reached and the citizens will be given the benefit of the aqueduct water at an early date.

We refer this question to the fair-minded consideration of our consumers.

Dated September 1st, 1914.

C. S. BROOKS, WELL KNOWN GROCER, SAYS AKOZ CORRECTED SCIATICA.

Proprietor Newberry Store at 2013 West 7th Street, Praises Mineral Remedy.

C. S. Brooks proprietor of the Newberry store, at 2013 West Seventh street one of the most genial and popular men in the grocery business in Los Angeles, declares that Akos the wonderful medicinal mineral is everything claimed for it. He says the remedy corrected his sciatic rheumatism. In a letter about Akos he says:

"Through one of my patrons I learned of the wonders of Akos. She knew of my long suffering from sciatic rheumatism, the pain I endured, and of my persistent efforts to obtain some remedy that would give me the slightest relief if not a cure. This patron was kind enough to send me a circular about Akos, and knowing that she had gotten great benefits from the mineral for rheumatism and other ailments it looked good to me. On May 15, 1914, I began taking Akos, using the compound, water and pills. Before the end of the first month I noted a great improvement. After taking the internal treatment for three months, the external having been discontinued when the pains had been stopped, I can say the Akos did everything claimed for it, and I feel completely rid of my ailment. My experience with Akos in other cases that mine show that for inflammatory and congestive conditions the Akos compound and plaster give immediate relief. The mineralized water is a strong, pleasant tonic on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bladder. This water seemed to build up my entire system and make me feel better in every way. The blood seemed better and I like the treatment so well that I am taking it yet occasionally. I will gladly answer any inquiries or letters by mail or in person."

Akos will be found effective not only in rheumatism, stomach trouble, bladder, liver and kidney complaints, but in eczema, piles, ulcers, catarrh, skin diseases and other ailments. For sale at all leading druggists where further information may be had regarding this advertisement.

DOESN'T FEAR

Before People.Police Seek Honeymoon Pair
With Bench Warrant.

PASADENA, Sept. 1.—"I'm bigger than he is. I am not afraid," said Miss Gladys Peck, of No. 1188 North Raymond avenue, yesterday, when informed that Harold Hannibal, Stanford graduate and geologist, had disappeared from his home in San Jose and was on his way to Pasadena to press his suit for her affections.

Once before, two months ago, Hannibal came to Pasadena and Miss Peck had him arrested. He was given a thirty-day suspended sentence on a charge of annoying her. "If he comes back," said Miss Peck, "the will do so at his own risk."

Today the police received word to be on the lookout for the youth who had forced himself upon Miss Peck in spite of frequent rebuffs. It is believed that he wandered from his home while in a delirium brought on through illness.

His father has offered a reward for information that will lead to his recovery. He is 24 years old and has been associated with Dr. Ralph Arnold in making geological surveys and tests in the California oil fields. He is infatuated with Miss Peck and Chief of Police McIntyre has ordered the officers to be on the lookout for him.

Miss Peck appeared quite unconcerned over the matter and said that she half expected he would show up. She intimated that the case would be pressed against him if he did so and that he would be compelled to serve his sentence imposed at the time he was convicted and allowed to go upon probation.

MUNICIPAL RAILROAD.
The last of the conferences between the City Commissioners and business men of Pasadena on the municipal railroad question was held yesterday morning upon the return of Chairman McCall of the City Commission. The proposition will be put up to the people at a meeting to be called to decide upon whether to bond the city for a sum sufficient to construct a municipal railroad between Pasadena and Los Angeles, a right of way for a considerable portion of the distance having been obtained and offered to the city.

The matter has progressed to the stage where the bond issue would be necessary was discussed. A committee is to be appointed to look closely into the matter. Apparently the matter is meeting with encouragement. The railroad would run from the center of Pasadena to First street, Los Angeles.

BORRY HONEYMOON.
It will be a sorry ending of their honeymoon for L. E. Brown and his bride of Los Angeles when they encounter Forest Ranger Cunningham of the Arroyo Seco, who is looking for them with a bench warrant issued in the justice court today.

Brown is alleged to have left a camp fire burning outside his cabin in the arroyo while he and his bride went tramping up the canyon. Brown was arrested, but failed to show up yesterday in court. Now the officers are looking for him.

G. H. Scofield of Los Angeles was fined $50 yesterday by Judge Dunham for leaving a camp fire. The first communicated to the underbrush and Scofield was one of those who was compelled to fight the flames. The forest rangers summoned help from near-by camps.

RAN ON GOATS.
Dr. Stanley P. Black, City Health Officer, would put a ban on goats and rabbits. He would put them in the same class as chickens, ducks, geese and cows by limiting their numbers and prescribing the limits within which they could be kept. His ideas are contained in an ordinance which he has recommended to the Commissioners.

The limit on rabbits would be twenty-five, and they would be compelled to be kept fully fifty feet from a dwelling. Goats would have to stay 100 feet away.

An amendment requiring a Maxim silencer on all goats will also be introduced, according to facetious reports from the health officer. The ordinance is also contained in an ordinance to be submitted. Other ordinances suggested would require shut-offs on all public buildings. This was brought about on account of the Maryland fire. In this case the gas shut-off was under the cement sidewalk and could not be reached.

CITY BRIEFS.
Because he appropriated five gallons of garbage, R. E. Weaver was assessed, through a fine, at the rate of a dollar a gallon by Judge Dunham yesterday, establishing a new high rate on garbage in this city.

City Chemist Marks yesterday asserted that the water in the Pasadena city plume is as clean with its 45,000 bacteria per cubic centimeter as is the drinking water of many eastern cities. The result of his analysis created considerable concern among mothers who besieged his office wanting to know if they should let their boys go swimming in the pool or keep them at home. He advised them to let the boys use the plunge.

James Reyes, Mexican, formerly vice-principal of the Pasadena High School, left last night to accept a position as instructor in the German department of Stanford University.

It was announced yesterday that 200 men are at work on the reconstruction of the Hotel Maryland and that the original plan to open the hotel on Thanksgiving Day will be carried out.

James Reyes, Mexican, dropped a revolver out of his pocket and was struck in the right leg yesterday by the bullet.

John Bendowski and Eddie Brinkus, who sold their bicycles and started for the war in Europe with a horse they obtained from E. Hutchins, a liverman, were returned to this city from Oceanside yesterday, where they were stopped on the way to the frontier. They were brought back by Chief of Police McIntyre.

GASOLINE BOATS
FURNISH FUEL.Tuna Fishermen to Take on Supplies After Dark.Direct Service to Steamer
Docks Via Trolley.Police Force Enlarged for the Water Front.

LOS ANGELES HARBOR, Aug. 31.—About 100 tuna fishing boats will hereafter be able to get fuel after dark without violating a city ordinance as the result of a conference between tuna packers and representatives of the oil companies, held at the office of Don C. Fugitt, port warden.

Barges to supply the boats with fuel will be permitted to anchor east of Deadman's Island. It will not be necessary to amend the ordinance which provides that the Harbor Commission may designate anchorage in the outer harbor for oil barges.

On account of the fire risk neither the oil companies nor the wharf owners desired the ordinance enforced prohibiting the loading of oil at the wharves after dark. Tuna fishermen complained that unless they could get fuel after dark much time was lost and they bring fish into port before daylight and leave after dark.

DIRECT SERVICES.
A trolley wire is being strung over one of the Southern Pacific tracks from First to Fifth street, San Pedro, and a connection made with the electric lines to give direct passenger service to the steamer docks of the steam line.

The improvement will enable the electric line to run steamer trains to the foot of Fifth street for steamers of the North Pacific, Pacific Coast, San Francisco and Portland and Catalina lines. Heretofore passengers have had to walk from Fifth and Front streets across the railroad yards to get to the steamer landing on a dusty road and there has been much complaint.

HARBOR BRIEFS.
Although no official news has been received apartment-house proprietors at San Pedro are receiving letters from officers and wives of officers on the H group of submarines and the tender Cheyenne asking that apartments be reserved beginning the last of September as the flotilla will return here about that time from Bremerton, Wash.

Beginning tomorrow the harbor district will have sixteen police officers on duty in addition to Lieut. Spellman in command. Three of the officers will be on duty at Wilmington, two on Terminal Island and the remaining eleven at San Pedro. Sgt. G. A. McClary and Officers Goodman and Dohrmann have been sent down from Los Angeles for duty here.

SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 31.—Attacked by a skunk, which had seized his nose as he slept, Jesse McDowell of Oceanside was painfully bitten while camping near Santa Ynez last night. He had to crush the skunk to death between his hands before he could break its hold on his nose. He has gone to San Francisco to take the Pasteur treatment, fearing rabies.

Amount of Appropriation About Decided by Congressmen Gives His Ideas of Situation.

EL CENTRO, Aug. 31.—It looks now like Congress will appropriate at least $200,000 for the control of the Colorado River, and perhaps more will follow as it is needed. Congressman Kettner has written to F. G. Today to that effect. He writes: "We have been over the ground here very carefully and the only chance for an appropriation is an amendment in the Senate to the Rivers and Harbors Bill. In the absence of Senator Voke's consent, the bill for us and it will be for emergency work on the Volcano Lake project. This means that further appropriation from time to time and future success will depend largely on ownership by the district of the irrigation system."

"The heads of the bureau and the Secretary will report favorably on this proposition for the control of the Colorado River. I shall certainly do my best to see it through. It will take three weeks to get the Rivers and Harbors Bill through the Senate after it is taken up there."

FOURTEEN KIDS ON FAMILY HIKE.

PASADENA, Aug. 31.—There is a family on the summit of Mt. Wilson that recalls Ezra Kendall's famous joke of the lady who boarded the street car with her children and the conductor inquired: "Madam, is this your family, or a picnic?" "It's my family," she replied, "and it's no picnic!"

Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Jamieson and fourteen children (count 'em) are camping on the mountain. The youngest is 1-year-old and the eldest child is 21. They climbed the mountain from Tropico and are roughing it in true western style. When they take a tramp it is like the German army moving to the frontier. They are well, happy, enjoy the outdoor life, observe their religious devotions and take part in all the festivities.

UP AGAINST IT.
Ambro McNally, operating a Venice hired car, was arrested today for reckless driving in the local mountains. While Sheriff Ralph was on the way up Waterman canyon to get McNally, the latter collided head-on with the officer's machine at a curve near the foot of the switchbacks. The comparatively slow speed of both cars prevented any serious damage to the machines or injury to the occupants.

McNally had been reported by a ranger who alleges the driver was recklessly speeding along the top of the mountains. The county rigidly enforces the speed laws, especially on the mountain roads. McNally was fined $15.

The will of the late Mrs. Marie Parker Palmer, who died at Sierra Madre, was filed for probate today in the Superior Court. The estate, which is valued at $13,000, largely in Redlands real estate, is left to the husband, Roger M. Palmer.

SAN GABRIEL, Aug. 31.—When the people residing along Las Tunas drive conceived the idea of paving that two-mile-long street, it was with the assumption that the Pacific Electric Railway would be compelled to pay half the cost and accordingly the Trustees of the city got busy and were taking preliminary steps to have the work put under way when it occurred to someone to interview the railroad people on the subject, as they owned a private right of way in the middle of the street.

The reply of the railway officials was astounding and their burst of generosity was not received in the same spirit it was given. They positively suggested that in view of the fact that they had practically abandoned this line long ago and were using the Mission drive line to reach the Masonic Home section that they would, if the city persisted in its plan.

At the hearing this afternoon the minister explained. He said that he was about to board a train for Garden Grove when he stopped in front of the minister's turntable store on East Broadway and began trying to get the hats in display out in front. He tried to get them out, but he was stopped a few feet farther along by a young man, who held him until the police appeared.

Rev. Mr. Ashleigh states that he can account for him giving the name of F. A. Bennette of Riverside when taken before the desk several days ago because he was confused and agitated over the arrest. He explained the fact that he signed the name Bennette to the receipt for property the same way, saying it is his middle name.

SANTA MONICA, Aug. 31.—It seemed that the Federal government has a long memory. For today the law firm of Tanner, Taft and Odell received a fee of $10 from the government for their work in securing a pension for a man some ten years ago. The attorneys had made application for the pension in the name of Carlos Miller, but up to today had never heard from the request. The law men take it that the receipt of the fee means that Miller received his pension, but they do not know where Miller is, as his address had been discarded some years ago.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)
SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 31.—The county road bond election will be held some time in October and the voters will be asked to stamp their approval upon an issue of $1,750,000, according to the decision today at a conference of members of the Highway Commission and the advisory committee headed by Judge F. F. Oster.

The proposed bond issue will cover in addition to the roads included for improvement in the original bond proposition fifteen miles of new road near Upland, Rialto, Alta Loma, Colton and a Redlands connection with the new Mill Creek Canyon highway. It will provide for the bettering of more than 400 miles of roads in the county, including the highway from San Bernardino to Needles via Barstow, Ludlow and the Santa Fe.

The Highway Commission, which includes W. E. Freeman, G. S. Hinkley and E. G. Gill, the latter chairman, will file its report with the Board of Supervisors in a few days. The report will mean that the election will be made immediately, it is stated. It is believed that early October will be picked for the special election.

At the conference today it was decided to appoint an executive committee of five members to carry on the campaign throughout the county and sub-committees in each city will be appointed to further the work.

SHIPPERS TO MEET.
The meeting to represent the interior shippers of Southern California at the Interstate Commerce Commission hearing on the "back-haul" case in Chicago on October 6 will be named at a meeting of the Interior Counties Freight Bureau in this city on Thursday.

The bureau is to ask the Commission permission to establish a rate of 50 cents per hundred on 150 commodities from Los Angeles to the Pacific Coast to compete with the now existing rate of 48 cents made by the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company through the canal. A slight back-haul charge in addition will be asked by the carriers for goods billed to interior.

The commission will be asked to set this back-haul, but the representatives of the shipping interests of the interior will enter a vigorous protest against any reflex charges whatsoever. The call has been sent to Riverside, Redlands, Colton, Pomona, Ontario, Santa Ana and Imperial points.

to pave and improve the street, present the city with the strip of land owned, and thus escape payment of half the entire cost of the work. This put a new face on the proposition and the proposed improvement was pigeon-holed for the present. This action was accelerated by the knowledge that the railroad might appeal later, after side-stepping the paving bill, and ask for a franchise on this street and there would then be little left to do but advertise it for sale under the law and it could be bought by the railroad at the usual nominal figure.

After their experience with the Mill Creek bridge, wherein they had to pay an extra $500 to get the railroad to agree to the work being done, they have about decided that they are not making much of a record in dealing with the Pacific Electric.

BANKER BRADY

ORGANIZED MANY BANKS
AFTER THE WAR.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)
POMONA, Aug. 31.—After an illness of some weeks' duration following an operation at the Pomona Valley Hospital, John T. Brady, for twenty-three years a prominent resident here, died yesterday at his temporary home, No. 132 East Pearl street, at the advanced age of 80 years.

He was born October 17, 1834, in Cass county, Illinois. In 1859 he became a pioneer settler in California at the outbreak of the Civil War. He was in Company A, Seventh Kansas, as a sergeant.

After the war he returned to farming and because a successful land owner and stock raiser. In 1870, he, with others, laid out the town of Sabathia, Kansas, and in 1882 organized a bank there. Being a successful bank organizer, he was instrumental in starting banking institutions in Fairview, Burns and Morrill, Kan.

Coming to California he first settled at Ontario, in 1890, moving to Pomona a year later and organizing, as president, with G. A. Lathrop, cashier, the National Bank of Pomona, now the American National Bank.

Although he retired from active banking several years ago, he was a director in the American National Bank, Mr. Brady, with others, organized the Consolidated Bank of Pomona here in 1896 and had been largely connected with realty and oil operations and politics.

He was a Republican and in 1905 was appointed County Supervisor to fill the unexpired term of the late Supervisor London. Mr. Brady was remarkably active for one so old.

The deceased was a member of the Pomona Lodge of Elks, Odd Fellows Lodge and G.A.R. Post. He married Miss Emily Collins in Sabathia, Kan. He still lives in Pomona.

The funeral services will be held at No. 132 East Pearl street tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock and will be private. The service is in full swing today, the Riverside Auto Bus Company making trips every half hour between the Elks and Odd Fellows standing in a body.

LONG BEACH, Aug. 31.—After a spirited engagement, which ended in the surrender of the Redlands ministers, peace was patched up between the warring city officials of Long Beach and the Redlands Ministerial Union this afternoon over the case of Rev. Frank B. Ashleigh, fined on the charge of theft.

It was mutually agreed that the church people of Redlands, who threatened to institute a boycott against this city as a summer resort, will resume amicable relations with Long Beach. Rev. Mr. Ashleigh, who is pastor of the Grace M. E. Church of Redlands, had an unfortunate experience here a week ago, in which he was arrested and fined on the charge of stealing a hat.

Rev. Mr. Ashleigh, escorted by a strong contingent of the church people of the citrus town, came here in request from the city officials. Some hard things were said about Long Beach city officials and police by the Redlands people when they heard of the arrest of their pastor, the word "graffers" being prominent in their expressions.

A verbal apology regarding their quoted expressions came from the visitors after they had succeeded in having the judgment against Rev. Mr. Ashleigh set aside. Mayor Wheaton was very forth over the newspaper articles emanating from Redlands, which reflected upon himself and his official family.

RIVERSIDE, Aug. 31.—The testimony of character witnesses and the plea that his wife and child were facing starvation saved Ray Burton, the Los Angeles youth who held up C. Thanas at Corona a few night ago, from immediate sentence on a serious charge.

Burton said that he committed the deed in desperation, as a result of being out of employment. For a period of three days, he declared, there was no food in the house with the exception of a little oatmeal.

A sister, Mrs. C. W. LeFevre, wife of a Los Angeles hotel man, testified that Burton's demeanor had always been amiable and that he had never known anything of his circumstances or he would have had assistance.

R. F. Hough, a Los Angeles painter and decorator who had had Burton in his employ, gave the youth a good name, declaring that Burton had even declined invitations to drink an occasional glass of beer with him.

The judge suspended sentence for a period of two years during which Burton will report to the probation officer.

Of all the extraordinary phases that appeared in the business during the first few days and of the European trouble, the definition of "moratoria" in various mental markets in Europe was undoubtedly the most striking, as the most eloquent testimony to the seriousness of the situation. A moratorium is nothing in itself, but an arbitrary extension of the time during which debts may be paid.

Other words, if a owner be a debtor on the 1st of August, and at some bank in England, the limitation of a moratorium changes date of payment on that note on August 5 to a date later on that particular case the extension time is thirty days.

The suspension of such debts, not of course, complete. Under terms of the English proclamation, a check or demand which had been accepted prior to August 4 was not extended in any way, but practically all other of exchange were so extended. Germany no official moratorium proclaimed in the early stages of trouble, but curious provisions adopted giving courts power to vary leniently with debtors and to extend the term of payment of debts as much as three months.

It is so long since anything like has occurred on a big scale in the history of the world's business that it is difficult to grasp the full meaning of it. The reason for it, of course, is the total inability on the part of public to obtain the usual amount of the world's business that finds it difficult to grasp the full meaning of it. DANCE TABOO.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]
NICE, Aug. 31.—The city was decided by unanimous this afternoon that there
be no dancing in the city.
The decision was made after they had allowed to be held on the fair grounds when many fair

Foreign Cotton Brokers Are Disposed to Accept Terms Imposed by American Shippers—Steady Traffic Is Reported by Western Railways.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Measures to relieve the difficult situation arising from the difficulty of meeting the city's obligations in London and Paris when it became known that local banks which act as city depositaries probably would co-operate with the banks through whom municipal notes were placed abroad. The plan contemplates gold exports of at least $5,000,000 to Ottawa. This sum may be doubled unless opposition becomes too strong.

The conference of international cotton brokers has for its main object a settlement of the foreign exchange situation in its relation to the exportation of cotton. Held its first session today, but beyond arranging the elimination of procedure nothing was accomplished. American representatives were reported to have declared that the foreign brokers seemed disposed to accept most of the terms imposed by the American shippers.

WHEAT BULGES FIVE CENTS UP.
MARKET STRONG FROM STAIN
AND CLOSERS FIRM.

Its Rapid Rise Caused Mainly by Announcement that Virtually All
World Shipments Are from North America and for the Most Part from United States.

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—Wheat jumped rapidly today, influenced by signs that European demand for supplies from this side of the Atlantic was becoming more acute. After a bulge that in some cases amounted to 5 a bushel,
the market closed firm, with a gain of 3 1/2 to 4 1/2 cts. and an advance of 5 1/2 to 6 cts. on the average. The market declined to a rise of 2 1/2. Perhaps the most important factor in the movement was the announcement that world shipments were virtually all from North America, and for the most part were made up of wheat that had been grown in the United States.
